

The Project Director of the project is responsible and accountable for the project and for the success of the project. The Project Director should be a person who is experienced in project management and who has the necessary resources to complete the project.

